About the Event:

Peter Szabo, founder of Solutionsurfers, the largest coach training school in Switzerland will be conducting training for certification in solution focused coaching in Singapore in May and September. Across the globe coaches, leaders, manager and consultants are discovering the positive power of the solution focused approach. It emerges as an important alternative to the traditional problem-solving methods. This preview session will give you an introduction to brief coaching to give your clients lasting results.

This preview session will include:

- 3 major challenges in coaching
- Making performance appraisals beneficial to both parties
- Brief Coaching with scaling questions
- Each participant will receive a set of Coaching Cards and be able to experience and try two of the coaching tools during the preview session.

About the Presenter: (Peter’s books will be available)

Peter has a Doctor of Law degree and is a Master Certified Coach. He teaches coaching at several European universities and coaches individuals and corporate clients on management and life issues. Peter is a brilliant and imaginative trainer, and is a highly regarded member of the International Coach Federation (ICF) coach accreditation panel. Peter is co-author with Insoo Kim Berg of Brief Coaching for Lasting Solutions, perhaps the most comprehensive book on Solution Focused Coaching.
